

KYLEMORE COLLEGE

Anti-Bullying Policy

1. In accordance with the requirements of the Education \(Welfare\) Act 2000 and the code of behaviour guidelines issued by the NEWB, the Board of Management of Kylemore College has adopted the following anti-bullying policy within the framework of the school's overall code of behaviour. This policy fully complies with the requirements of the Anti-Bullying Procedures for Primary and Post-Primary Schools, which were published in September 2013.

This policy comprehends bullying that is either perpetrated by students or experienced by students in the College. The matter of intra-staff bullying is addressed in the following CDETБ policies.

- Bullying Prevention Policy – Complaint Procedure for CDETБ Staff.
- Harassment/Sexual Harassment prevention policy – complaint procedure for CDETБ staff.

2. The Board of Management of Kylemore College adopts the Anti-Bullying Procedures for Primary and Post-Primary Schools issued by the Department of Education and Skills (September 2013) as the basis for the way in which the Kylemore College community addresses the issue of bullying.

3. The Board of Management recognises the very serious nature of bullying and the negative impact that it can have on the lives of students or staff and is therefore fully committed to the following key principles of best practice in preventing and tackling bullying behaviour.

I. A positive school culture and climate which:

- ✓ is welcoming of difference and diversity and is based on inclusivity;
- ✓ encourages students and staff to disclose and discuss incidents of bullying behaviour in a non-threatening environment; and
- ✓ promotes respectful relationships across the school community.

II. Effective leadership.

III. A school-wide approach.

IV. A shared understanding of what bullying is and its impact.

V. Implementation of education and prevention strategies (including awareness raising measures) that:

- ✓ build empathy, respect and resilience in students;
- ✓ Explicitly address the issues of cyber-bullying and identity-based bullying; including in particular, homophobic and transphobic bullying. Effective supervision and monitoring of students.

VI. Supports for staff.

VII. Consistent recording, investigation and follow up of bullying behaviour (including use of established intervention strategies).

VIII. On-going evaluation of the effectiveness of the anti-bullying policy.

4. In accordance with the Anti-Bullying Procedures for Primary and Post-Primary Schools bullying is defined as follows.

Bullying is unwanted negative behaviour, verbal, psychological or physical conducted by an individual or group against another person (or persons) and which is repeated over time.

The following types of bullying behaviour are included in the definition of bullying.

- ✓ Overt exclusion, malicious gossip and other forms of relational bullying.
- ✓ Cyber-bullying.
- ✓ Identity-based bullying such as homophobic bullying, racist bullying, bullying based on a person's membership of the Traveller community and bullying of those with disabilities or special educational needs.

Isolated or once-off incidents of intentional negative behaviour, including a once-off offensive or hurtful text message or other private messaging, do not fall within the definition of bullying and should be dealt with, as appropriate, in accordance with the school's code of behaviour.

However, in the context of this policy, placing a once-off offensive or hurtful public message, image or statement on a social network site or other public forum where that message, image or statement can be viewed and/or repeated by other people will be regarded as bullying behaviour.

Negative behaviour that does not meet this definition of bullying will be dealt with in accordance with the school's code of behaviour. Additional information on different types of bullying is set out in Section 2 of the Anti-Bullying Procedures for Primary and Post-Primary Schools.

Those who bully others in a non-physical way often do not realise that their actions may have serious legal consequences for them. The reality, however, is that bullying may constitute a criminal offence.

For example, bullying may constitute a criminal offence under Section 10 of the Non-Fatal Offences against the Person Act 1997.

Section 10 of this act deals with harassment and provides that a person may be guilty of this crime if s/he:

'... without lawful authority or reasonable excuse, by any means including by use of the telephone, harasses another by persistently following, watching, pestering, besetting or communicating with him or her.

'For the purpose of this section, a person harasses another where-

- (a) he or she, by his or her acts intentionally or recklessly, seriously interferes with the other's peace and privacy or causes alarm, distress or harm to the other, and

(b) his or her acts are such that a reasonable person would realise that the acts would seriously interfere with the other's peace and privacy or cause alarm, distress or harm to the other'.

Section 10 harassment is an arrestable offence and, if convicted on indictment, carries a jail term not exceeding 7 years. On conviction also, a court may make an order that the guilty party may not, for a specified period, communicate by any means, or come within a specified distance of a person's home or workplace.

Section 2 of the Prohibition of Incitement to Hatred Act (1989) makes it a criminal offence for a person to publish or distribute written material, to use words, behave or display written material ... or to distribute, show or play a recording of visual images or sounds, if the written material, words, behaviour, visual images or sounds, as the case may be, are threatening, abusive or insulting and are intended or, having regard to all the circumstances, are likely to stir up hatred.

Those convicted on indictment under this provision may be sentenced to a maximum of two years imprisonment and/or a fine of up to £10,000.00.

Even where bullying does not amount to a criminal offence, the perpetrator may be held liable for damages in civil court proceedings. For example, statements made on social media sites are covered by the provisions of the Defamation Act 2009, which at Section 2 defines a defamatory statement as 'one which tends to injure a person's reputation in the eyes of reasonable members of society'.

Many, young and not so young, seem to feel that by posting anonymously on social networking sites, they can guarantee that their identity is protected. This, however, is not the case. Indeed, in many cases the content of messages makes it easy to identify the perpetrator. In any case, where the Gardaí have grounds for believing that criminal activity may be occurring, applications can be made to the courts requiring the internet service provider or others in possession of relevant information to divulge a perpetrator's identity.

Where it is felt that bullying may amount to a criminal act, the School/College will seek legal advice and the matter will be reported to the Gardaí.

5. To whom should concerns about a student being bullied be reported – relevant teachers for investigating and dealing with bullying?

Students, parents, non-teaching staff or members of the wider community should feel welcome to report their concerns to any member of the teaching staff – including the Principal, the Deputy Principal. In this regard, any member of the teaching staff is deemed to be a relevant teacher in the context of Section 6.8.3 of the Anti-Bullying Procedures for Primary and Post-Primary Schools. The relevant persons for investigating bullying behaviour in Kylemore College are detailed in Appendix 1.

6. Education and prevention strategies to combat bullying – Section 6.5 of DES Procedures

- 6.1 Kylemore College makes it clear to all members of the school community that bullying of any kind is unacceptable, irrespective of whether it is a student a staff member or any other person that is the subject of such behaviour. In this context, all members of the School community have a duty to bring to the attention of the Principal or Deputy Principal any incident of cyberbullying or harassment that they know about or suspect.
- 6.2 While, when investigating and dealing with bullying the primary focus is on resolving differences and building/ restoring, as far as is practicable, the relationships of the parties involved. Kylemore College nevertheless reserves the right to take disciplinary action (up to and including suspension and expulsion), where such is warranted, in accordance with the “Kylemore College Code of Behaviour”, against those who bully others.
- 6.3 The prevention and awareness of bullying is integral to this policy and students will, through both their curricular and extra-curricular programmes, be provided with opportunities to develop a positive sense of self-worth.
- 6.4 The focus of the College’s prevention strategy will be to build empathy, respect and resilience in students.
- 6.5 Students will be provided with opportunities to understand the causes and effects of bullying, the issue of identity-based bullying and in particular homophobic and trans-phobic bullying. This will include the display of LGBT posters (as appropriate) and discussions with parents about statements of welcome and respect for LGBT members of the school community, teaching the Social, Personal, Health Education (SPHE) resource, Growing Up LGBT and (as appropriate) participating in LGBT awareness events.

Kylemore College recognises that the SPHE curriculum makes specific provision for exploring bullying as well as the inter-related areas of belonging and integrating, communication, conflict, friendship, personal safety and relationships. Also, that the Relationship and Sexuality Education (RSE) programme provides opportunities to explore and discuss areas such as human sexuality and relationships, which has particular relevance to identity-based bullying. The College will make every reasonable effort to ensure that the full potential of these programmes to combat bullying is exploited.

The College is committed to exploring the potential of the Schools for Health in Ireland Framework to assist it in ensuring that the school is inclusive, welcoming of diversity and addresses these issues effectively in the interests of all members of the school community.

Furthermore, it is recognised that there is potential within the teaching of all subjects and within extracurricular activities to foster an attitude of respect for all: to promote the value of diversity; to address prejudice and stereotyping and to highlight the unacceptability of bullying behaviour.

6.6 Prevention and awareness raising measures will also deal explicitly with cyber-bullying through educating students about appropriate online behaviour, how to stay safe while on-line and also through developing a culture of reporting any concerns about or incidents of bullying to a member of the teaching staff.

6.7 The College will, in all its communications with students and their parents, commencing with the induction of the student into Kylemore College, make every effort to highlight the importance of students reporting incidents of or concerns about bullying to a member of the teaching staff.

More than anything else, the combating of bullying will depend on the extent to which students note and report bullying. In this context, the well-being of students is very much dependent on the vigilance of their fellow students and their preparedness to report concerns about bullying to the teaching staff and/or school management. All teaching staff will reinforce this point to students on an ongoing basis.

6.8 The College will adopt a school-wide approach (involving management, staff, parents, students and members of the wider community with a connection to the College) to prevent and combat bullying. In this context, the College is committed to engaging with parents. Firstly, the College will involve them in the development of policies and practices to combat bullying. Secondly the College will hold information sessions for parents to ensure that they understand the way the College deals with bullying, and to provide them with reliable information on how they may contribute towards combating bullying. In this regard, it is important that parents realise that anyone can be a bully and anyone can be a target of bullying. It is not just other people's sons and daughters that can bully. Here, also, it is important to realise that disagreements between young people are part and parcel of negotiating the road to adulthood and that every youthful disagreement should not be treated as a full-blown bullying episode.

6.9 The College will establish links with school bus drivers and others who come in daily contact with its students in order to enlist them in countering bullying behaviour by reporting it to parents and/or the College.

6.10 Where necessary the College will seek the assistance of and work with The CDET B Psychological Service in Winstead, the HSE and the Gardaí, as appropriate, to combat bullying – identify the perpetrators and support those affected.

6.11 In combating bullying, the College will take particular account of the needs of pupils with disabilities or with SEN. This will involve promoting inclusion, focusing on developing social skills, paying particular attention to student induction and cultivating a school culture that respects everyone and values helping one another.

6.12 The College will devote a staff development session/ CPD (for teaching and non-teaching staff – as appropriate) raising the awareness of bullying among staff, building an understanding of what bullying is and providing guidance on how it is best combated – prevented, detected, investigated, documented (as appropriate) and resolved. This session will also provide opportunities for exploring the potential that exists within the teaching of all subjects and within extracurricular activities to foster an attitude of respect for all, to promote the value of diversity, to address prejudice and stereotyping, and to highlight the unacceptability of bullying behaviour.

A clear focus of all staff development around combating bullying will be the enablement of all staff to implement this policy and the Anti-Bullying Procedures for Primary and Post-Primary Schools consistently and effectively.

- 6.13 The College is committed to surveying the student body regularly (at least once every school year) to identify the extent of bullying and, in so far as is possible, the students that are affected by it.
- 6.14 The College's RSE and SPHE programme will specifically address the issue of bullying with each year group, each school year.
- 6.15 The College will, each year, hold a Safe Internet Awareness day and an Anti-bullying awareness week to highlight the whole issue of bullying and staying safe using modern technology.
- 6.16 The Gluais Team will assist in recognising bullying behaviour, for bringing concerns about bullying behaviour to the attention of a teacher and for supporting vulnerable students in relation to bullying. The Gluais Team will be provided with training to assist them in this regard- Meitheal.

7.0 Procedures for investigating, following up and recording of bullying behaviour, and intervention strategies used by the College for dealing with cases of bullying behaviour - see Section 6.8 of DES Procedures

- 7.1 Where a member of the teaching staff has a concern about a student being bullied, either as a result of a personal observation or as a result of receiving a report from a third party, s/he may deal with the matter in accordance with the procedures set out in Appendix 2, the teacher may refer the matter to the Principal/Deputy Principal or designated teachers as listed in Appendix 1.
- 7.2 In dealing with bullying behaviour in any way, teachers should inform the relevant teachers.
- 7.3 Where a teacher is concerned that a particular bullying episode is causing serious upset to a student, staff member or other person, s/he should bring it to the attention of either the Principal or Deputy Principal at the earliest possible opportunity.
- 7.4 The College reserves the right to investigate allegations of bullying (and to take disciplinary action where necessary) where bullying is perpetrated by a member of the school community and it impinges on the work or well-being of a student in the school, even where the bullying acts are committed outside of the college.

- 7.5 The College reserves the right, in accordance with Section 6.3.5 of the DES Procedures to seek the assistance of agencies such as Psychological Services, NEPS, the HSE, and the Gardaí, where it deems such assistance is necessary to dealing effectively with bullying behaviour. In any case, where the College deems bullying behaviour to be potentially abusive (see sections 6.8.12, 6.8.13 and 6.8.14 of the DES Procedures) it will consult with the HSE's Children and Family Services to assist it in drawing up an appropriate response or to obtain advice or to make a formal child protection report to the HSE or the Gardaí (as appropriate) in accordance with the DES Child Protection Procedures for Primary and Post Primary Schools.
- 7.6 Concerns about or allegations of bullying will be investigated and addressed in accordance with Section 6.8.9 of the Anti-Bullying Procedures for Primary and Post-Primary Schools. These are summarised as follows.
- a. In investigating and dealing with bullying the focus will be on resolving the interpersonal issues and restoring/ building, as far as is practicable, the relationships of the parties involved.
 - b. In investigating and dealing with bullying, the teacher will exercise his/her professional judgement to determine whether bullying has occurred and how best the situation might be resolved.
 - c. All reports of bullying, including anonymous reports, will be dealt with in accordance with Appendix 2 or 3.
 - d. It will be made clear to students in all years that when they report bullying behaviour they are not considered to be 'telling tales' but are behaving responsibly and that the well-being of other students is dependent on them reporting such behaviour to a teacher or to a member of the Gluais Leadership Team.
 - e. All non-teaching staff such as clerical and administrative, study supervisors, special needs assistants (SNAs), caretakers, cleaners, sports' coaches, those taking extracurricular activities and those driving school buses will be encouraged to report any incidents of bullying behaviour witnessed by them, or mentioned to them, to a relevant member of the teaching staff as per appendix.
 - f. Incidents of bullying will be investigated in a calm, unemotional problem-solving manner.
 - g. Incidents of bullying will generally be investigated outside of the classroom situation to ensure the privacy of all involved.

- h. All interviews will be conducted with due sensitivity, irrespective of whether they are allegedly involved in bullying behaviour or in a position to provide information about the behaviour being investigated.
- i. Those investigating bullying behaviour will calmly seek answers to questions in accordance with Appendix 5.
- j. Where the relevant teacher investigating a bullying issue determines that bullying behaviour has occurred, the parents of the parties involved will be contacted at an early stage to inform them of the matter and to explain the actions being taken (by reference to the school policy). The school will give parents an opportunity of discussing ways in which they can reinforce or support the actions being taken by the school.
- k. Where the relevant teacher determines that a student has been engaged in bullying behaviour, it will be made clear to him/her how he/she is in breach of the college anti-bullying policy and every reasonable effort will be made to try to get him/her to see the situation from the perspective of the person/s being bullied.
- l. Where the College deems it necessary to impose disciplinary sanctions, it will be made clear to all involved (both the bullied and those doing the bullying) and their parents) that this is a private matter between the student being disciplined, his/her parents and the College.
- m. As a follow up to a bullying issue being resolved, the relevant teacher should meet separately with the relevant parties to review progress. Subsequently, but only if the student who has been bullied is ready and agreeable, consideration should be given to meeting with both parties simultaneously as this can have a therapeutic effect.
- n. Where the relevant teacher considers that the bullying behaviour has not been adequately and appropriately addressed within 20 school days after he/she has determined that bullying behaviour has occurred, the bullying incident must be recorded by the relevant teacher in the recording template at Appendix 4.
- o. In determining whether a bullying case has been adequately and appropriately addressed the relevant teacher must, as part of his/her professional judgement, take the following factors into account.

- ⇒ Whether the bullying behaviour has ceased.
 - ⇒ Whether any issues between the parties have been resolved as far as is practicable.
 - ⇒ Whether the relationships between the parties have been restored as far as is practicable; and
 - ⇒ Any feedback received from the parties involved, their parents or the school Principal/ Deputy Principal or relevant teacher.
- p. Where a parent/guardian or a student who is more than 18 years old is not satisfied that the College has dealt with a bullying case in accordance with the Anti-Bullying Procedures for Primary and Post-Primary Schools, s/he will be advised of his/her right to make an appeal to the College Committee/ CDET B. Such appeals shall be submitted, in writing setting out the grounds for the appeal, to the Chairperson of the Board within 15 school days of the parent/guardian informing the College principal that s/he is of the opinion that the College has not dealt with the bullying case in accordance with the Anti-Bullying Procedures for Primary and Post-Primary Schools.

Where a parent/guardian, having exercised his/her appeal to the CDET B, is still not satisfied s/he will be advised of his/her right to make a complaint to the Ombudsman for Children.

Those involved in investigating and resolving bullying behaviour will note and report in accordance with Appendix 2 and/or 3, in doing so, they will comply with relevant data protection legislation.

In each of the circumstances at (a) and (b) above, the recording template at Appendix 4 must be completed in full and retained by the teacher in question and a copy provided to the Principal or Deputy Principal as applicable.

At any point in either investigating or resolving a bullying matter, the relevant teacher may seek the advice and support of the Principal and/or Deputy Principal while retaining responsibility for dealing with the matter.

Also, at any point in either investigating or resolving a bullying matter, the relevant teacher may hand the matter over to either the Principal or Deputy Principal. In doing so, however, s/he must complete the recording template at Appendix 4, retain a copy of the completed template in his/her files and provide a copy to the Principal or Deputy Principal, as applicable.
